Practical information

We are organising this congress without project funding or congress fees. That's why this congress does not include pre-booked rooms and transport. Follow the information below to make sure you have this all covered!

Rooms

The rooms have been confirmed at the UH (University of Hertfordshire) accommodation at the De Havilland Campus, sadly on this campus there is no breakfast service included with the room. We were only recently notified of this – sorry for any inconvenience. You will receive some information on where to get breakfast nearby.

Transport

We will suggest the possible routes and means of public transport to all of the venues throughout the congress. The tickets are to be bought at the station/stops at the time of departure. Participants staying at the UH can travel together at the indicated times.

Meals

Lunch (Thursday and Friday) is covered by the sponsorship of Letchworth Garden City Heritage Foundation. Dinner is free of choice – the cost is at the expense of the individual participant.

Thank you for your participation, we are looking forward to seeing you all soon !

EU-citizens : don't forget to travel with your valid international passport
